

Proud

These children have each achieved something – and each has been awarded a medal. They all feel proud. Make up a reason why each feels proud.

She is proud because...

He is proud because...

Remember

You don't have to get a medal to be proud! Jamila feels proud of her painting that she finished. Forest feels proud of the tower he built (it took him ages). Loki is proud of himself because he cleaned up his toys all by himself even though he isn't fond of tidying
